Town of North Hills Meeting Minutes

Present-Recorder Fred Newberry, Regina Smith, Cheney English, and Chris Nahley. Absent were Mayor Dale Baumgartner, council persons Don Stemple and Angie Cole.

The meeting was called to order at 7pm by Recorder Fred Newberry, filling in for Mayor Baumgartner.

A motion was made by Cheney English to approve the July 23 minutes, seconded by Regina Smith; approved by council.

Fred Newberry led the safety discussion. It is important for people to keep socializing during this pandemic, in order to keep our immune systems working well.

(Recorder report)

#1 North Hills Drive does not have a sewer system currently. The town will be working with them to fix their system and connect it to the sewer system of North Hills.

A Tanglewood resident, Mr Vrabel, submitted a building permit proposal to install a fence. Cheney and Fred will check this out before proceeding.

The picnic shelter is coming along. Dale and Don have begun putting the tables together.

There is no update from the pool team at this time.

The fall yard sale will be September 12.

Ballot positions were drawn and are as follows--(Mayor and Recorder both only have one candidate)

1. Regina Smith
2. Rachel Hensley
3. Don Stemple
4. Cheney English
5. Chris Nahley

A motion was made by Cheney English to adjourn at 7:34pm, seconded by Chris Nahley; approved by council.
